Lehengas for woman have always been the most fashionable and stunning Indian attire for any occasion or function. These traditional outfits look ethereal and beautiful when adorned by any woman. Earlier, it was seen that women generally prefer to wear this outfit only at the time of wedding ceremonies or grand family functions. But the time has changed now and women love to get dressed in various modern types of designer lehengas at other occasions also. If you wish to look your best in this beautiful women attire, you first need to know your body type and then which lehenga style will suit your body type. Depending on the type of your body, you must select a lehenga which will help you in enhancing your personal style and individual statement. Sneak below & find out which type of lehenga you need to spruce up your complete look -

Straight Cut Lehengas - This is the most common and popular style of lehenga and have always seen worn by various celebrities. Women with any body type, be it apple shape, pear, hour glass or rectangular (I shape) body, can wear this style and flaunt their beautiful curvaceous body. Pick an online lehenga with straight cut and keep tension at bay.

Fish Cut Or Mermaid Style Lehenga - This style of lehenga is tight fitted till the knee like a shape of the fish and then flares wide open at the bottom. Women with hour glass like or rectangular body shape should pick fish cut lehenga to accentuate their complete style and personality.

Panel Length Lehenga - Having number of panels in the bottom skirt, this lehenga style looks beautiful and simply stunning. The panels stitched together can be of same or different fabric type. Ideal pick for pear shaped and hour glass shaped women due to heavy bottom portion.

A-Line Style Lehenga - The bottom skirt of these lehengas looks like a shape of 'A'. The flare of the skirt is bit open from the hip area to the hem. This lehenga style is also perfect choice for hour glass and pear body shaped women. Get ready to find them online & take a pick according to your body type and other features.

Circular Style Or Flared Lehenga - There are number of pleats which are stitched at the waist area thus giving the perfect flare to the skirt. Due to large spread, this lehenga style has always been girl's most fave choice. But it looks best on apple (V-shaped) or rectangular (I-shaped) body shaped women as it goes and fits best on their body figure.

Knowing about your body type and features, pick an online lehenga which will compliment your flawless body and fits best to it. Make sure to wisely choose the blouse design and the length of the sleeves to match the style of the lehenga you have decided to slip into. For example, short blouse is perfect pick for pear shaped and I-shaped women while women with Apple type body should try long blouse to flaunt their beautiful body. Women with hourglass body shape can choose any of them or better collared blouse to make it stunning.

Make the most of the wedding season and other occasions by picking the right style of lehenga to go with your individual body type and features.
