

Generation X and Next Syndrome

Generation X and Next you are not apathetic, cynical, rebellious, or a slacker.

HAVE YOU BEEN TOLD THAT YOU ARE APATHETIC, CYNICAL, REBELLIOUS OR A SLACKER?

IF YOU WERE ABLE TO ANSWER YES TO THOSE QUESTIONS, YOU HAVE BEEN LABELED AS GENERATION X OR GENERATION NEXT.

EVEN IF YOU DO NOT CONSIDER YOURSELF YOUNG ENOUGH TO BE A PART OF EITHER OF THESE GENERATIONS BUT FEEL AS IF YOU ARE APATHETIC, CYNICAL, REBELLIOUS OR A SLACKER, THIS INFORMATION IS FOR YOU TOO!

Dear Generation X and Generation Next,

The reality is you are not apathetic or indifferent about life.

You really are a passionate group who just want to express yourself in a way that looks different than the norm or what society is use to seeing.

Also, you are not cynical or only interested in yourself.

You are just as passionate about the people you love just like anyone else.

The truth is, you have realized that in order to love others effectively, you must truly love yourself first.

Moreover, instead of you Generation X and Generation Next being rebellious, you just want to THINK for yourself and that is not a bad thing at all.

That is called living your life from the "INSIDE OUT" instead of the "OUTSIDE IN!"

Lastly, Generation X and Generation Next, you are not slackers.

You have plenty of ambition! You are FULL OF LIFE!

It's just that you want to do what you love or really enjoy what you are doing and not just collect a paycheck.

With all of that said, Generation X and Generation Next you are known as one of the most entrepreneurial and tech friendly generations in American History.

You have greatly contributed to the internet's growth.

You are less promiscuous than previous generations because starting a family is not a top priority for you at this time.

But, "getting rich" as quickly as you can is your main goal isn't it?

Did you know that you really can use your mind to create the type of life that you desire?

Did you know that life is not as hard as it APPEARS or as hard as OTHERS tell us it is?

Generation X and Generation Next you are in control of your life, NOT SOMETHING OR SOMEONE ELSE?

Think about it, when you are creating the type of life you want, that instills more confidence, love, and stress-free living.

Also, when you are creating your life, that helps to alleviate "looking to others all the time" for answers.

That Generation X and Generation Next is a BEAUTIFUL THING!!!!!!
