There is hardly any breakup that is easy, and it is often uncomfortable even to have a chance meeting with your ex. The problem is compounded by the fact that you may actually be interested in getting back that ex. If this is your goal, you need to be aware of how to play your cards well. Merely trying to get the attention of your ex may create an even wider rift between you.

As awkward as the situation is, you can actually get your ex back if you employ the right strategies. You will find some useful tips in this article that will lead you towards the right direction in restoring your broken relationship.

Give your ex some room

One of the commonest mistakes that people tend to do is to keep trying to get the attention of their exes as often as they can. Instead, you should allow your ex to have some space after a breakup.

Relax

Although a breakup is very painful, you should not take things too seriously. Remember that this too will pass.

There is really no need in getting worked up over something you don't have powers over. You may just create bigger mountains.

Avoid jealousy

Trying to hold onto your ex will make matters worse. Also do not try to make your ex jealous.

Avoid negative talks

Do not say anything negative about your ex. Get back at your ex or teasing your ex on personal matters will just prove that the breakup was after all for the better. You will come out as someone who is full of the spirit of revenge. If you succeed in making your ex to return by arousing jealousy, you won't enjoy the new relationship anyway.

Don't debate the issue

While you may feel like reasoning with your ex, don't do this. You need to take things slowly in your effort to get back your ex.

There are also a number of great strategies that are important in getting back your ex. Learn about them and rescue your relationship. For more information, Visit <http://www.squidoo.com/discover-magic-of-making-up>
