

How to Create and Set Up Norton Online Backup for the first time

To prevent our systems from external threats, we install best of antiviruses. This security software not only secures our computers but also add some extra features to our systems. There are extensive threat removal tools in built in them with some high-performance cleaning and defragmenting tools. You can even back up your important data on its servers and can retrieve them anytime you want anywhere in the world. One such software we are talking about in this blog is Norton. It produces almost all the utility applications needed to run a computer safely and securely.

With the help of Norton support +65-31582483, you can learn a lot of hidden features that are developed to provide every minute help to its users. In the following paragraph, you will read the steps that will help you in solving all the problems related to the online backup of your important data through Norton servers. After storing the data on its servers, you can be assured of its safe keeping and security. And you also can get your files from any computer by logging in to your account.

To create one such online backup facility, follow the below-mentioned steps:

1. First, go to the official site of Norton online backup and there click the signup button to create your account.
2. Enter your details that can help you while verifying your account.
3. Follow other on screen instructions and complete the process by clicking the signup button.
4. Now you have to activate your ID and for this, press the activate link and then enter the purchase ID that you have received through registered mail.
5. In the final step, you have to add a computer to your account. To add one, go to the home page and there select the add computer link.
6. Finally, agree to the terms and conditions and add your device.

You can Contact Norton Support Number +65-31582483 from your phone to get an instant help. This support team is well capable of handling any situation related to this product. If you have any query then just call and ask for the support.

Original Source

Author: Amy Waller

Article downloaded from page eioba.com