

Jeddah - A door to Entertainment

Jeddah is the home for shoppers as it has some of the biggest shopping Malls in Saudi Arabia and they all are different from each other in some way or the other.

The kingdom of Saudi Arabia is mainly known as SAUDI in most of the parts of the world. The nickname Saudi makes it friendly and familiar, and most of the Asians are fond of it as many of their family members reside in Saudi. Apart from this, many visitors visit Saudi Arabia for the purpose of tourism but the common visitors in Saudi are the Pilgrims.

Just imagine this place where so many people visit, no matter what the reason, but one thing is sure that they all need entertainment and freedom. On the other hand, we cannot forget that Saudi Arabia follows stringent rules of Islam like enforced segregation by gender and conservative dress code for women and big No to booze as well as other similar vices. Under all these circumstances where would you find entertainment? The answer is "Jeddah Landmarks". Confused? Don't be. The Best Commercial Center In Jeddah are known as Jeddah Landmarks. Saudi is known for the pleasure it provides to the shoppers. In recent years, it has become a major point of tourist attraction.

Jeddah is the right place for people who want to shop shop and shop. If you have enough money to spend then the Best Commercial Center in Jeddah would help you do so. Let's see what is in them:

Red Sea Mall

This mall carries the tag of the biggest mall in Saudi. Apart from the foodcourt, family area, stores of biggest reputed brands, you will find an exquisite play area designed for your kids, where special events are organised especially to keep them occupied and entertained. Being the biggest mall it has 18 gates for entry and exit. This mall caters to the needs of people who are with or without money; I mean even if you are not shopping you can still keep yourself entertained. The mall offers a walk through history by the way of historical paintings and traditional decorations.

Mall of Arabia

This mall is worth visiting during the day time but if you have kids with you then plan your visit late in the evening as the mall looks beautiful due to the beautiful lighting. It is a perfect mall for families and especially for young trouble makers, I mean your kids who would love to play at kidZania interactive kids play zone. While the kids are busy playing, the women of the house can move around all the popular clothes and shoe shops.

Serafi Mega Mall

Like any other mall this mall too has lucrative options for shopping but if you are intending to entertain yourself by means other than shopping then this is the right place for you. Entertaining activities like bowling, carting and laser tagging are offered at 10so arcade. It is located on the mall's top floor with the food court.

Jeddah is the home for shoppers as it has some of the biggest shopping Malls in Saudi Arabia and they all are different from each other in some way or the other. Some cater to the elite class, some to the middle class and some are open to all. In a similar fashion, these malls are further segregated by their specialisation - some are known for luxurious brands some for entertainment and some for being able to provide all under one roof.

It is well said, "The proof of the pudding is in the eating" so visit this wonderful place and see it for yourself.

Author: anyasaiyyad

Article downloaded from page eioba.com