Inside the Irish folktale, Stingy Jack port is sometimes also called Jack port the Smith, Drunk Jack port, and Jack port of the Lantern. As the storyline goes, Jack port was a drunkard who resided within an Irish town. While wandering around drunk one night time, Jack found the Devil. The storyline proceeds: "Stingy Jack port asked the Devil to truly have a drink with him. True to his name, Stingy Jack port didn't want to cover his drink, so he persuaded the Devil to carefully turn himself into a gold coin that Jack might use to buy their beverages. After the Devil do so, Jack made a decision to keep carefully the money and put it into his pocket next to a gold cross, which averted the Devil from changing back to his original form.
