

Why Is He Cheating? Relationship Advice for the Ladies

Why is he cheating? Why men cheat on their women?

The blow of knowing the truth and wanting to know why your husband cheats on you can hit you rather hard that you will just think of your own side of the story. While this is understandable, you may be equally stunned by what you discover if you find out what was on his mind. Why is he cheating on you? Why many husbands cheat? Figuring out the answer to this question will give you a deeper insight into your relationship in general. You are able to know the fallacy of what many women tend to think of.

Women usually assume that when their husbands cheat, then the reason is the other woman. This is not usually the case, however. Perhaps you feel that your husband views the other woman younger and prettier than you are. The truth is that you are still very smashing to him and you are prettier than her.

In many cases, men do not cheat because of the great looks of the other women. More often than not, men cheat because of the way they feel. A man is more likely to cheat with a woman who boosts his ego and makes him feel great. If you do not make him feel this way and another woman gets the opportunity to do it, there will be higher chances of losing him to her.

You can make a man do almost anything so long as you boost his ego, and this is something that another woman can take advantage of. If you make your man feel special, there will be little chance for him to go astray. When you add this ego-stroking with those other wonderful moments, your husband will think about you no matter where he may be.

Why husbands cheat on their wives

In many cases of cheating, the women with whom the men have affairs know how to stroke their egos. This is the one thing that plays the greatest role in many cases of cheating.
